Irregularity at Opening Reflects Divergent Views Held by Traders.

YORK, Dec. 16.-Irregular NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Irregular changes at the opening of today's stock market refrected the further divergent views of traders. Motors, oils and steels fatured the stronger issues with a sprinkling of shippings and specialities at gains of 1 to 2 points. Rails were an uncertain factor, several of the secondary issues rising from fractions to a point, while investment shares, notably Pacifics and coalers, were lower by 1 to 2½ points. The general list hardened within the first half hour, however, on the strength shown by Crucible and Republic steels and Baldwin and American Locomotives.

Profit-taking in several of the specu-tive industrials and the heaviness of w grade oils, imparted an uncertain ne to the market during the mid-ssion. Steels, equipment and ship-

Higher Exchange Rates and Better Outlook for Foreign Loans Help to Bulls.

Tuesday Afternoon, Dec. 16.
Shorts in cotton had a bad day of today, being subjected to severe punsmiden outburst of strength seemed to be in the financial situation on both sides of the water. Sterling and other foreign exchange rates were higher this morning, while some good people on this side had it that informed circles believed the worst had passed and easier rates would soon be witnessed. Later in the day the announcement from Washington that the Edge bill, which provides that banks operating under national charters would be allowed to make foreign lonns, had passed the scnate and was ready for the president signature proved still another impetus to the buying wave.

The center of the bullish activity was in the near positions, the steadiness in spots and small prospect for protecting short sales with actual deliveries serving as notices of warning and inducing considerable covering activity. The hig

Liverpool was disappointing, but this Liverpool was disappointing, but this was natural enough with sterling firmer and better prospects for larger movement from this side in that direction. Finals were steady and from 6 points off to 21 points up. Spots were marked down 27 points, middling to 25 28d, with sales of 7,000 lades, including 3,500 American. Manchester's report was again excellent, cloths being in good demand and yarns very firm.

The chief early influence was the improvement in sterling and increased ta's of action being taken to stabilize it, which will increase prospects of business for export. First price for March in New York was 33,80c, but it sagged to 33,50c before starting upward. Thereafter the advance was not checked for long, and in the later afternoon it had reached 24,60c and seemed to be well supported. The later positions were not up quite so much, due to the fact that some short hedges were being transferred to them by those covering shorts nearer by. Some of the professional shorts were among the buyers, while Liverpool, continued to account of the professional shorts were among the buyers.

transferred to them by those covering shorts nearer by. Some of the professional shorts were among the buyers while Liverpool continued to buy over here as well.

In the spot department activity was better and demand was reported broader, although by no means general yet. The news as to finances encouraged those who have been waiting for demand to revive and more bullish take was heard than for some time. Exports for the day were small, but it is believed they will be targe from this time on, as fuel troubles are at an end should there be real basis for talk of more foreign credits and for more stable exchange the chances would seem to favor freer export movement.

The market firmed up rapidly on the higher foreign exchange rates and late in the morning stood at gains of 31 to 76 points over yesterday's close. December traded as high as 40 cents. The coastwiss clearance from Galveston of 25,925 bales attracted some attention as indicating continued improvement in the coal situation.

Heavy short covering made its appearance during the moon hour and the demand came upon a market not at all well supplied with contracts. Bullian traders were quick to take advantage of the situation and increased their buying. At 1 c'clock prices were at using aims of 49 to 58 points.

Strength in Corn Due to Prospect of Continued Light Receipts of Corn.

CHICAGO. Dec. 16.—Fresh strength which developed in the corn market to-day was ascribed chiefly to lightness of receipts and to predictions that it would take several weeks for railroads to move sufficient corn to prove a burden on values. After opening unchanged to '5c higher with January $1.36 to $1.354 and May $1.32 to $1.339, corn scored a material upturn all around. The massage of the Edge foreign finance bill served to increase builds sentiment in the last part of the day. Prices closed buoyant, 1% to $1.35% to $1.35% and May $1.345 to $1.35%. Oats were in good demand, principally from speculators. Opening prices which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to %c higher including May at $14 to 16 $140, cwere followed by a moierate general advance.

The Need

A Christmas of Sensible Giving

THE WORLD needs nothing so much as it needs plain, old-fashioned common sense.

Give sensible, useful gifts this year—gifts that will benefit the recipient and perpetuate the recently acquired habit of saving.

It is not the actual value of the gift that counts—it is the kindly thought behind the gift.

A Savings Account in this bank will solve, easily and economically, your Christmas gift problem of what to give, and there is no doubt about your gift being acceptable.

A "Gift Account" may be secured for one dollar or more.

You can make arrangements in just a few minutes—either by mail or in person.
